

Dripping Springs Wineries

With over 30 unique and visually stunning wineries, breweries, and distilleries scattered throughout Dripping Springs and Driftwood, there's an abundance of boozy destinations to sip and savor a glass of wine, an ice-cold craft beer or a classy cocktail. From local nano-breweries to nationally recognized spirit companies, the Dripping With Taste Trail will introduce you to a vibrant and diverse assortment of establishments that are all committed to high-quality products with home-grown hospitality.

BELL SPRINGS WINERY - Experience chef prepared food, small-production wines, and a visit that you will never forget. Stop by for a wine tasting, pairing experience, glass of wine, or lunch. A visit to Bell Springs Winery isn't complete without sitting on the patio and listening to live music by local musicians.

SIDECAR TASTING ROOM - Come visit the Prohibition wine bar in the heart of downtown Dripping Springs. Sidecar Tasting Room was created as a second tasting room for Bell Springs Winery and to pay tribute to the prohibition era. Sidecar occupies an old house on 1/2 an acre on Old Fitzhugh Rd. It offers a cozy inside space and plenty of outdoor patio space, to enjoy great wine, great food, and wonderful live music.

FALL CREEK VINEYARDS - As one of the founding families of the Texas wine industry, Fall Creek Vineyards makes exquisite wines. Grapes have been sourced from the estate and farmer-owned vineyards throughout Texas for four decades. Fall Creek is dedicated to matching the right grapes with the right soil and climate to produce benchmark wines. Stop by to experience the single-vineyard Terroir Reflections wines and Bordeaux inspired Meritus Wines by touring the vineyards, meeting winemakers and enjoying a festive winery event or education class.

TREATY OAK WINERY - The foundation for M6 (treaty oak) was laid in 2004 when the founder made his first non-commercial vintage. The wine, made from local and imported fruit, has since grown in quality and abundance. It has become a central part of family meals. The M6 family feels that a good glass of wine can help turn a beautiful Texas sunset into a spectacular farewell to a beautiful day.

HAWKS SHADOW VINEYARD - Visit Hawk's Shadow Winery & Vineyards for handcrafted wine with breathtaking Texas Hill Country views. Hawk's Shadow offers a relaxing escape from the working world and an authentic taste of handcrafted Texas wine. Picnics on the patio, dinners in the Cellar and four legged friends are welcome.

DRIFTWOOD ESTATE WINERY - The Texas vineyard with the million dollar view! Driftwood Estate Winery and Vineyard embodies the spirit and heart of Texas. Driftwood radiates Texas pride in its production of high quality wines made from Texas grapes. The winery sits on a bluff overlooking the Hill Country. The view from the bluff is spectacular, and the grounds are perfect for relaxing with your favorite glass or bottle.

PARMESAN WINES - An intimate tasting room on Bell Springs Road specializing in single vineyard Sauvignon Blanc, Rosé, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Zinfandel and Cabernet Sauvignon wines from Sonoma County.

HAMILTON POOL VINEYARDS AND FARMS - A Unique expression of wine, celebrations and sustainability in the Texas Hill Country. Under Vine Since 1999 - Hamilton Pool Vineyards is one of the pioneer vineyards of Texas. Hamilton Pool Vineyards is a family-owned and operated winery that proudly offers hand-crafted wines, many produced from the 9-acre estate vineyard. The boutique wines are processed in a French style, making them unique among other Texas Hill Country wineries. Hamilton Pool Vineyards & Farms' 65 acres make for one of the most magical and picturesque settings around.

GRAVEYARD VINEYARDS - Graveyard Vineyards of Paso Robles, California opened a tasting room in the lovely Dripping Springs. You will have the opportunity to taste their award winning wines and understand the reason it is called, Wine to Die For!

SOLARO ESTATE - Staying true to the motto, "The Art of Science" Solaro Estate strives to produce limited production, internationally awarded wines from vine to glass. From cultivating the best grapes in their mineral-rich soil to tasting and enjoying them with friends and family throughout the year, Solaro wines are a lifestyle! Whether you decide to enjoy a wine tasting overlooking the vineyard, relax on the serene covered patio or host your next event, your Solaro visit will be one to remember!
